Story Time

Gil and Renée, are originally from Detroit, Michigan. Their relationship started out by a simple act of Renee rolling her pencil of her desk and Gil picking it up. They never knew such a small act would create a 37 year legacy of love.

Gil and Renée were only 21 when they happily committed to each other until death do us part. Gil retired from the Air Force and Renée is a former salon owner who has been an entrepreneur and now author for over 30 years. They have lived in over 13 cities throughout the United States and Germany.

They are proud parents to an amazing and talented daughter, Aharon (pronounced like Sharon, except with an A). They also adopted Renée's little sisters (Carmen and Monique) after a family tragedy. Today they each have loving families of their own.

This couple has helped many other couples establish new habits of love to strengthen their marriage. Gil & Renée's marriage relationship is providing tested relationship principles and a safe community. They are facilitators through the Prepare and Enrich Marriage program. Let's get empty of the pain from our past, unforgiveness, resentment, shame, and uncommunicated expectations.

Gil & Renée's 37-year relationship might mean they know what it takes to maintain and grow healthy relationships. They must understand love is a choice. Their 37 years together also provide evidence of something worth exploring and modeling. What is their secret, or are the answers hidden in plain sight?

Time To Dream

Rich Relationships podcast with Gil and Renée M. Beavers is amazing because it's the best place to really explore the reality of relationships — the good, the bad and the painful and confusing.

This podcast helps to illuminate what it means to be intimate with others and what it teaches people about them. It will make you want to strive for a kinder, more fun relationship with others. Many individuals don't have room in their heart, or life for people due to unforgiveness, regret, shame, and uncommunicated expectations.

Rich Relationships is an experience with principles to learn. There are tools to use with an emphasis on building, repairing, and restoring relationships with individuals, and family in a safe community environment that will stand in a world that's falling apart. We are Stronger together let's grow!

Montgomery, AL, November 30, 2020 --(PR.com)-- Covid Proof Your Relationship, American couples are stressed out. COVID has increased the stress in marriages and relationships. Relationships have been hit hard by a pandemic that has tanked the economy, thrown millions of men and women out of work, forced families into lockdowns, and taken the lives of hundreds of thousands.

Rich Relationships guru Gil and Renée Beavers, also the authors of Rich Relationships, our Marital Code to Oneness, have the answers to COVID PROOF your Relationship through their forty-five-minute mini sessions.

Couples can benefit from these specialized mini sessions to support Conflict Resolution, Communication, Commitment, Identity, Money Management, Intimacy, and Appetites.

Gil & Renée Beavers, 37 years of friendship & love is the foundation of their marriage messages. This couple's love for God, and marriage, is their BIG why. Their goal is to empower couples to discover how to unpack the pain of the past and many preconceived notions associated with relationships.

These two desire to provide the tools, principles, and community needed to grow and change. Their passion is to aid individuals in building, repairing, and restoring relationships that matter. Gil & Renée are the hosts and creators of the Rich Relationships Podcast, Mobile App, and Book.

Gil & Renée have been featured on CBS, NBC, TBN, Atlanta Live, HOT 108 FM, the Huffington Post, and LV & Sheen Magazine. Introducing the world to the Rich Relationships project is a journey. The evidence is clear Gil & Renée are spreading the word of Rich Relationships around the world.
